June 01, 2015 I was given this swing as gift when my twin boys were a month old and for the last 5 months it has been a lifesaver! It has always been able to keep my boys happy. They love the mirror to look at themselves and the nature sounds works really well to put them to sleep when they are tired. I would d say the only downside to this swing is the mobile, the toys are too small and tony hang down far enough. I don't think they even notice it, but it doesn't even matter because they still stay happy in it! 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! May 08, 2015 I got this when I had my son and he absolutely loved it and now my daughter is in it and can't get enough of it. I love that it has the auto start swing so you don't have to give it a push start, the variable swing speed and rotate to swing side to side or head to toe is great too. There's different music and sounds that you can choose from and adjust the volume of as well as a cute mobile of birds that circle around a dome mirror so your child can see themselves. It's overall cute to look at, fairly large though is my only complaint but for my sanity the best purchase I've made to date! 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! April 12, 2015 I used this when my Son was just born because we wasn't to lay completely down for at least a month and it was PERFECT love it and I would use it all over again, it is definitely worth the extra bit of pricing. 4.5/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! Anonymous February 11, 2015 Ontario, Canada I find these items pricey although we used this every day for our little one in the early months. It's great, has music and our baby really enjoyed falling asleep in this swing. 4.3/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! Anonymous January 30, 2015 I bought this for our 3 month old grandson last week to keep here when he comes. It is expensive, but so worth it. It's not at all like the other swings that rock back n forth, This one is awesome. 4.7/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! November 22, 2014 We set this up for our son when he was 4 months old. He instantly loved it. We have probably used this swing everyday since. It is a great, safe place to put your baby (5 point harness!) while you tackle other mom tasks. Even now at 14 months, he still likes sitting in it and looking at books. I don't know what we are going to do when he outgrows the weight limit (25lbs)! 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! August 15, 2014 I don't know what i was thinking when I thought I didn't need a swing for my baby...it was probably the condo living space mentality thing but now that we are in a house, the Fisher-Price My Little Snugabunny Cradle 'n Swing is the best thing ever and come to think of it, i would have moved furniture out of my condo to fit this product in because it is so effective. I love all the settings for sound and speed and that you can use the swing side to side or front to back. My son always stares at the mirror and mobile above him at times as he is about to fall asleep. I highly recommend this product! 3.8/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! May 19, 2014 This swing was a must-have for my son's first six months! I love that it has an outlet so you do not need to use batteries. I also love that it can swing either side-to-side or front-to-back (though I almost always just used it side-to-side). The swing has a nice soft plush seat and my son would happily nap in this. I always turned the water sound on, as that helped him fall asleep the best. I will say that sometimes the motor seemed to struggle to get the swing moving and I would have to give it a push. Also it is fairly expensive for something you can only use for a relatively short time. But I still think it's worth it! 4.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! October 04, 2013 I was given this as a gift when my son was born. He loved it and putting him to sleep in that was so easy. The cradle shape of swing is so convenient. The top of the swing had the music and sound control. It was one of my favorite items. 4.7/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! May 09, 2013 This swing was highly recommended to me, so when my baby arrived we made sure to get it. Our daughter seemed to enjoy it quite well, and on those days when she would not sleep elsewhere, we could sit her in the swing and she would eventually fall asleep. I like that the swing can go two directions. Once set up it is a bit large, so you'll need some space. But, I was pleasantly surprised at how light it was and easy to move around. January 22, 2019 Ontario, Canada Best naps ever Expecting my fourth baby I really needed this for some hands free moments. Works perfectly for some must needed naps. For mom and baby. Baby couldn't resist a nap with this swing! 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! October 16, 2018 Absolutely love We absolutely love our snugabunny set! The swing is so soft and I love that it goes front to back or side to side. The rock and play was amazing for our newborn who refused to sleep in a bassinet and the matching bouncer was just as soft as the swing and very comfortable and relaxing for our newborn 3.5/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! August 14, 2018 Georgia, United States It did it's job We loved our first snug a bunny swing, when we found out we were expecting again, it was the first item we bought! My boys always loved being in the swing. But our last one did give out on us. The motor started smoking and melted while my son was in it. 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! Anonymous October 27, 2017 Best newborn sleep aid! Love this swing! Helped get me and the baby precious hours of sleep. The swing rocks two different ways, which is a lifesaver when baby will only be rocked a particular way and you have two options to work from! White noise is good - but wish it would stay on longer. The moving mobile and mirror kept baby calm as he fell asleep. Only thing to consider is it takes up a fair amount of space. 4.5/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! January 29, 2017 This was a life saving swing! My son would sleep on hours for end in this swing and it was such a nice device too have in my home. I don't know what I would have done without it as he would immediately stop crying once I put him in it and put the music on. I loved how there was a beautiful mobile on top of the swing that would move around. The plus side too this you don't need batteries. Just plug it on and he can use it all day long without needing any batteries. There is 2 swing options as well. Side too side and back and forth. There is over 10 different sounds/sounds with this swing. I would highly recommend this too any parent. He swang in this swing for over 14 months until I had too give it up as he was just too big. The motor worked fine, zero issues. Love it so much! 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! January 03, 2017 Does what it says, my 5 month old loves it, it has been our saviour. My son has reflux and this swing cradles him and allows him to sit up at the perfect angle to allow him to have the comfort of laying down yet being upright enough to help with reflux. Worth every penny, and I love that it plugs in... Saved me tons of money EY on batteries 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! March 09, 2016 Got this swing as a gift and it's amazing my girl loves sleeping in it it's so cozy has straps to keep babies safe from falling out has different speeds and tons of melodies plugs into an outlet or takes batteries well worth the price! Totally recommend 4.7/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! February 14, 2016 This Fiser-Price My Little Snugabunny Cradle n' Swing is the best swing. It is very durable. It's plug-in so you don't have to consistently replace batteries. It's nice and cozy for older or bigger babies. It has different speeds and plays a wide variety of melodies. It's a bit expensive but well worth the price. 5.0/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! February 07, 2016 Great swi g for my baby with the combo of the music and swinging he falls a sleep for hrs. 4.8/5 Value / ValeurQuality / QualitéEffectiveness / Efficacité Recommended? You Betcha! January 23, 2016 I know the price of this can be intimidating but it is 100% worth every penny of it. This swing was a total life saver for us when our daughter was young! It's 100% stable and secure with tons of different functions for ex. The swing itself moves to swing in different directions, the center of the mobile is also a mirror so babies can see all the silly faces they make all while the birds and leaves move up-down-and around. It plays a variety of sounds such as birds chirping aswell as music. Totally worth it !! These reviews are the subjective opinions of ChickAdvisor members and not of ChickAdvisor Inc.
